13:00-18:00		Wendo – Acting against Sexism Wendo is a kind of femistic self-defence from and for women/lesbians (and girls). Every woman has the ability for Wendo. You don't need to be athletically or physically well shaped. We are going to practice physical and verbal technics and we are exchanging strategies. Bring comfortable clothes (Women/Lesbians only)
14:00-16:00		The Basics: Introduction to the approval/consent conception (DEFMA) As many of you know an approval is defined as the unfettered and explicit agreement of all participants to a specific sexual act/activity. In this workshop we tell about the approval discourse within the last decades and explain the text we wrote on our poster. (open for all genders)	Movie-Brunch with filmmaker Sol Haring No time to get old is a video documentation about getting older as a female artist and performer. The film shows twelve female US Americans in her Fifties living in the Cities of Akron, Ohio and Little Rock, Arkanas. The women are talking about getting older, doing music and describing their artistic works. (open for all genders)

15:00-17:30	A warm welcome? Inviting politics of and to feminist (sheltered) places A workshop with Mika Herbst Sheltered rooms and places are a part of feminist politics and practices since a long time. These rooms and places should be free of the non balanced power structures which are experienced as suppressive in society. In this workshop together we consider and question different inviting strategies and concepts: How did they develop? To whom this rooms give shelter? What does FLIT* only mean? etc. Not everything is about sex and gender. The aim is to find out more about the meaning of a variety of definitions for a variety of groups. (for people who care about feminist space) For max. 15 Participants
16:00-18:00		!Cancellation! Critical White This workshop is an approach to elucidate the concept of Critical Whiteness from different perspectives to point out the benefit of the concept for white activists. (open for all genders)
18:00-20:00	Laudation to the Clitoris Information about the physical and anatomical basics of the female pleasureable sensation. The up-to-date knowledge gets discussed and presented via pictures and videos. (FLIT only)
